

October 21, 2008 ✎ Radisson Hotel ✎ Arlington VA
Fall Workshop

LOW-CARBON ELECTRICITY: WILL THE TECHNOLOGY SHIFT BE THERE?

Agenda

- 8:00 AM Welcome & Introductions
- 8:10 AM Opening Session
Roundtable Discussion on State Climate Change Policies
A panel of attorneys representing state/regional industrial groups will critique emerging state regulatory policies for mitigating greenhouse gas emissions
- 10:00 AM Break
- 10:15 AM Overview of Cost Uncertainties of Climate Change Mitigation Policies
Robert Shackleton
Macroeconomic Analysis Division
Congressional Budget Office
- 11:15 AM Near-Term Opportunities for Carbon Capture & Sequestration
Sarah Forbes
Senior Associate
World Resources Institute
- 12:15 PM Lunch
- 12:45 PM Keynote Speaker
The Honorable Marc Spitzer
Commissioner, Federal Energy Regulatory Commission (FERC)
- 1:45 PM The Infrastructure Needed for Electric Utilities on a Low-Carbon Diet
The Honorable James J. Hoecker
Senior Counsel, Husch Blackwell Sanders LLP
Counsel & Advisor, WIRES
Former Chairman, Federal Energy Regulatory Commission (FERC) (1993-2001)
- 2:45 PM Break
- 3:00 PM Closing the Energy Efficiency Gap: At No Cost?
Judson Jaffe
Vice President
Analysis Group
- 4:00 PM A Realistic Look at the Prospect for Nuclear Power
The Honorable Peter A. Bradford
Associate, Regulatory Assistance Project
Former Chairman, NY PSC (1987-95) & Maine PSC (1982-87)
Former Commissioner, US Nuclear Regulatory Commission (NRC) (1977-82)
- 5:00 PM Adjourn